

ART. 21.] JUSTICES OF THE PEACE AND CONSTABLES. 1875

following fees : For issuing each State writ, twenty-five cents ; for summoning all the witnesses on both sides in any case, fifty cents ; for each trial, one dollar ; for every commitment, twenty-five cents ; for every release, twenty-five cents ; for taking recognizances in each case reported to the circuit court, twenty-five cents each ; for each attachment for contempt, twenty-five cents.

1884, ch. 510.

120. The aforesaid fees of said constables and justices for said counties shall be taxed against and paid by the party against whom judgment shall be rendered, unless he or she be discharged therefrom by due course of law ; if such party against whom judgment is rendered is unable to pay the same, such fees shall be paid by the county wherein said judgment was rendered ; and all fines and penalties received by any justice under the provisions of section 118, shall be accounted for and wholly paid without abatement or deduction therefrom by such justice, to the county commissioners of the county wherein they are collected, for the use of said county ; and no part of any fine or penalty enforced or collected under said section shall be paid to any informer.

1886, ch. 355.

121. It shall not be lawful for any resident of Talbot county to be sued before any justice of the peace of said county, out of the election district in which he resides ; provided, however, that upon any cause of action within the jurisdiction of a justice of the peace arising in said county, any resident may be sued before a justice of the peace in the election district wherein the contract was made and such cause of action did originate.

P. L., L., (1860,) art. 20, sec. 94.

122. A judgment of a justice of the peace for said county shall be a lien on the lands of the defendant therein, in said county, from the day on which a copy thereof is filed in the office of the clerk of the circuit court for said county, and the said clerk may issue execution thereon, as on judgments of said court.

Ibid sec. 95.

123. The constables of said county while attending the circuit court shall each be entitled to two dollars a day.
